Experience

- ▲ Informally engaged to provide advisory to a local SME operating within the wholesaling and transport industry in western Queensland and the Northern Territory. Moira advised the company with regard to its pricing, competitors' pricing, market forecasts and expectations. Additionally, Moira oversaw the subsequent restructure of the company's operations, designed to allow for a more competitive pricing structure. After six months, Moira reviewed the company's finances and found that the restructure had had a positive financial impact.
- ▲ Appointed administrator and then liquidator to OZ Design Townsville, a local furniture outlet franchise. Moira briefly traded the business before relocating the furniture to a suitable location where she held a widely advertised sale. With the results of the sale far exceeding those of a regular auction, Moira successfully realised the company's assets and provided a satisfying return to stakeholders.
- ▲ Appointed bankruptcy trustee for an individual operating a taxi truck delivery service. After initial investigations revealed significant anomalies in the goods delivered, the Property Squad of Brisbane police were contacted. After a police raid on five different premises, the police confiscated six shipping containers of stolen goods. Moira liaised with the police with regards to the return of the stolen items and with the prosecutions against those parties involved.
- ▲ Moira oversaw the receivership of the Coronas Hotel, a heritage listed hotel in Charleville. With the hotel trading under receivership for five months, Moira oversaw the necessary construction renovations to meet health and safety standards. Maintaining the heritage listing, the hotel was subsequently sold as a going concern with monies owing repaid to the secured creditor.
- ▲ Moira oversaw the liquidation of a runout mortgage business which was an unregistered managed investment scheme. Litigation was commenced against the legal advisors for negligence resulting in successfully returning to investors between 95% and 100% of their capital investment, some plus interest.
- ▲ Moira oversaw the receivership of a corn farm with operations across Queensland. With security over the crop, plant and equipment, Moira was responsible for harvesting the crop and auctioning the plant and equipment. After the respective sales the secured creditor received the majority of funds owing.
